Agreement for Business Online

This Agreement for Business Online (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") is by and between Southside Bank (hereinafter referred to as the "Bank") and the account holder (hereinafter referred to as "you" or "your"). In accordance with your decision to utilize the Bank's Business Online product, the Bank hereby grants you an exclusive nontransferable sublicense of Business Online software. You agree and understand that upon your written acceptance of this Agreement and the completion of the Enrollment/Maintenance Form, the Bank will provide you with access to Business Online. Business Online is not a product belonging to the Bank but is, instead, a third-party service which has been made available to the customers of Southside Bank if they elect to accept such service. Such service will provide you with information and data relative to your bank statements and your accounts at the Bank and, should you elect, such program may also permit you to initiate certain transfers into and from your accounts. The Bank has no proprietary control over the software and, therefore, cannot and will not guarantee its performance or suitability. Unless otherwise required by law, the Bank shall not be liable for any error or delay on the part of Business Online or for any other act or omission of Business Online, and Business Online shall not be deemed to be our agent.

You further agree that should anyone gain access to any of your accounts at the Bank through Business Online, regardless of whether or not you have authorized that person to access such accounts, you shall be solely responsible for the activities of such person while accessing such account even if such activities were unauthorized by you. The Bank shall have no responsibility whatsoever for unauthorized access or activities through Business Online to your accounts.

1. Instructions, Login ID and Passwords

The Bank will provide you with a login ID. You may utilize Business Online to obtain information concerning the status of your accounts at the Bank, seven (7) days a week, twenty-four (24) hours a day. You agree to keep your login ID and password strictly confidential and to take all precautions necessary to keep the login ID and password secure, disclosing it only to trusted employees who must have access to them in order to perform their employment duties; to instruct those employees that they will not disclose your login ID and password to any person; and to establish and maintain all procedures necessary to assure that the password will be maintained in strictest confidence. You are responsible for determining the strength of your password and ensuring that it is adequate. If you or any of your employees authorize or permit another person to use the Service or attain your login ID or password, you are responsible for payments, transfers or advances that person makes from the deposit and credit accounts linked to your service registration. The Bank will have no liability for any transfers or other actions taken by anyone you or any of your employees have given your password to or otherwise allowed or permitted to access your password or your Business Online account.

You are responsible for keeping your username and password confidential and for ensuring that each person signs off of Business Online when their session is complete to prevent unauthorized persons from using the service. You may be held responsible for actions that may be taken by anyone signing in with your username and password, and you agree that we are entitled to rely and act upon instructions received under your username and password. If your password becomes known to any unauthorized person or if you believe it may have become known to an unauthorized person; if an unauthorized transaction occurs on your account or if you believe an unauthorized transfer may have occurred on your account; if you believe someone has viewed, downloaded or deleted electronic records from your Business Online account without your permission; or if a handheld device, computer or other electronic device used to access your Business Online account has been lost, stolen or compromised, you will immediately provide telephone notice thereof to the Bank, followed by written notice to be sent the same day.

The Bank will have no liability to you for any unauthorized transfer made using your password that occurs before you have notified us of possible unauthorized use and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon that notice. The Bank reserves the right to change your password at any time, effective upon notice to you. You agree that the Bank may send notices and other communications, including password confirmations, to the current address shown in our records, whether or not that address includes a designation for delivery to the attention of any particular individual. You further agree that the Bank will not be responsible or liable to you in any way if information is intercepted by an unauthorized person, either in transit or at your place of business.

2. Acknowledgment of Commercially Reasonable Security Procedures

By using Business Online, you acknowledge and agree that it sets forth security procedures for electronic banking transactions that are commercially reasonable. You agree to be bound by instructions, whether authorized or unauthorized, which we implement in compliance with these procedures, unless you have given us prior notice of possible unauthorized use as described above (and we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice). In addition, you agree and acknowledge that it is your responsibility to determine what security procedures you need; to determine whether the security procedures of Business Online are adequate for your needs; and to take additional security measures on your own if you determine that the security procedures of Business Online are not adequate for your needs.

3. Input of Information

The Bank shall not be liable or responsible for information which is inaccurate, incomplete, not current or lost in transmission. It is understood that the Bank assumes no liability or responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or correctness of the data entered into Business Online, unless the data errors are the result of the Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

4. Internal Transfers

If you have elected on the Enrollment/Maintenance Form to utilize Business Online to effectuate transfers into or out of any of your accounts at the Bank, you may then use Business Online to initiate inter-company transfers between any of your accounts at the Bank. The Bank will execute properly authorized intra-company transfer requests on the business date received provided such requests are received by the Bank prior to 11:30pm. By initiating any such transfer(s), you assume full responsibility for verifying the availability of collected funds at the time of the transfer request.

5. Restrictions on Transfers from Savings and Money Market Accounts

You understand that under Federal Reserve Board Regulation D, depositors are permitted to make no more than six transfers or withdrawals from a money market or savings account per month (not counting transactions made at ATMs or at banking centers). Transfers made by telephone or personal computer are counted toward the six total permitted monthly transfers or withdrawals. If your transactions exceed the legal limit, we will charge you a fee for each such transaction in excess of the legal limit. If you exceed the restrictions more than three times during a 12-month period, we will change the money market account to a checking account. On Regular Savings accounts, we charge a fee for each withdrawal or transfer in excess of two. The amounts of these fees are set forth in the Account Information Disclosure.

6. Honoring Transactions and Instructions

All individuals who are given use of your password to initiate any of the transactions (hereinafter referred to as "Electronic Entry(ies)") shall be designated as "authorized representatives". You understand that an electronically transmitted name of an "authorized representative" is not subject to verification and if an unauthorized person gains access to your password and the name of an authorized representative, you shall be solely responsible for any actions by such unauthorized person. You acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the terms of any agreement to the contrary between you and the Bank, when you use Business Online to effect Electronic Entries, the Bank shall have no responsibility for verifying such Entries by telephone or otherwise prior to effecting the transactions. With respect to any Electronic Entry, the Bank is under no obligation to honor, either partially or entirely, any transfer requests which exceed the available funds in your account with the Bank; is not in accordance with any written agreement between you and the Bank; or is not in accordance with the security requirements set out herein. If the Bank in its sole discretion creates an overdraft to complete a transfer, you agree to repay the Bank upon demand, together with interest (at the Bank's then current per diem interest rate for such overdrafts), a processing fee and if necessary the costs of collection. However, the Bank is under no obligation to create an overdraft for any purpose. The Bank is not liable for failing or refusing to perform any transaction which would violate this or any other agreement with the Bank. We will not be obligated to honor, in whole or in part, any transaction or instruction which: (i) is not in accordance with any term or condition of this Agreement or any other applicable agreement; (ii) we have reason to believe may not be authorized by you or any other person whose authorization we believe is necessary or involves funds or other property subject to a hold, dispute, restriction or legal process we believe prevents the transaction or instruction; (iii) would violate any applicable rule or regulation of any federal or state regulatory authority; (iv) is not in accordance with any other requirement of our policies, procedures or practices; or (v) we have other reasonable cause not to honor for our or your protection.

7. Disclaimer of Warranties; Limitations and Liability

THE BANK HAS NOT MADE, AND DOES NOT BY THIS AGREEMENT MAKE, ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THOSE OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE WITH RESPECT TO BUSINESS ONLINE, AND THE BANK HEREBY DISCLAIMS THE SAME. THE BANK AND ITS DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS ARE NOT AND SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR THE ACTS AND/OR OMISSIONS OF ANY THIRD PARTY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE VENDOR(S) OF BUSINESS ONLINE, AND ITS COMPONENTS, ARISING OUT OF OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH THIS AGREEMENT, BUSINESS ONLINE OR YOUR USE THEREOF.

8. Suspension or Termination

It is understood that the ability of the Bank to provide access to Business Online is conditioned upon the continued operation and availability of the computers which house Business Online. In the event that access by either you or the Bank to that computer/communications system is suspended or terminated for any reason, the Bank and its directors, employees and agents will have no responsibility to provide these services and, in such an event, the Bank may suspend or terminate this Agreement, without further responsibility or obligation.

9. Confidentiality

The Bank shall take reasonable precautions to insure that the customer information put into Business Online will remain confidential and protected from unauthorized access by third parties. It shall be conclusively presumed that the Bank has satisfied the foregoing obligations if the Bank has adhered to its regular security procedures and made contracts with reputable third parties who have made comparable representations to the bank. Similarly, there shall be a presumption that the third parties engaged by the Bank shall have satisfied their obligations to maintain confidentiality of customers' information input into Business Online if such parties have adhered to their regular security procedures. from the Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

10. Limitation on Bank Liability

The Bank is not liable to you for any act or failure to act, unless such act or failure to act is grossly negligent or willful misconduct. The Bank is not liable or responsible to you for: (a) delays or any errors caused by any internal computer problems, loss of internet service, power outages or other problems, your computer or internet problems, computer or internet problems with any third party, unless otherwise required by law; (b) the furnishing of data or information, errors, or omissions of any kind relating to inquiries, instructions, messages or transactions, originating from Business Online which are not caused by the Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct; (c) use by other persons (whether your personnel or person(s) outside your organization) of Business Online to effect or to attempt to effect transactions in your accounts and to gain information as to your accounts; (d) loss or damage caused to you by use of Business Online; (e) your failure to use Business Online in accordance with instructions; and (f) any act of God, natural disaster or other cause outside the control of the Bank. Subject to the foregoing limitations where the Bank shall have no liability whatsoever, if you suffer any loss of interest resulting from the Bank's error in executing or failing to execute a transfer in accordance with this Agreement, the Bank will reimburse you for the loss of such interest as stated herein for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) days following your receipt of the confirmation advice or periodic account statement (whichever occurs first). Such interest shall not exceed the Federal Funds Rate (net of required reserve) in effect at the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas for the period involved. For transfer or payment requests from business accounts, which are subject to Article 4A of the Texas Business & Commerce Code ("Tex. Bus. & Com. Code 4A"), we are liable only for damages required to be paid under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code 4A. In no event will we be liable for any special, indirect or consequential loss, damage, costs or expense of any nature, including, without limitation, lost profits, even if we have been informed of the possibility of such damages, except as may be required by law.

11. Indemnification

You hereby agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Bank and its directors, employees and agents from and against any and all claims, actions and suits, whether groundless or otherwise and from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, charges, attorney's fees and other expenses of every nature, directly or indirectly resulting from, due to or relating to, or arising by reason of, use (including unauthorized use), or misuse, or loss caused by the use of Business Online and including, without limitation, any such losses or charges arising directly or indirectly out of or in any way connected with, this Agreement.

12. Waiver of Requirement for Two or More Signatures

You agree that any requirement of verifying two or more signatures on any item, such as checks, will not apply to electronic transfers, and we will have no liability when making these kinds of transfers without the requisite verification. This means that any person who is an authorized representative on your account is authorized by you to individually make electronic transfers, even though that person's authority to transfer or withdraw funds from your account by some other means (e.g., by check) must be exercised jointly with one or more other persons. This provision controls and takes precedence over any conflicting provision in any other agreements you have with us.

PAYMENT SCHEDULING

Instructions for Setting up Payees & Payments:

Payees: If you want to add a new "Payee," first select the "Payee" tab located in the bill pay or speak to a service representative.

- The Financial Institution reserves the right to refuse the designation of a "Payee" for any reason.

Payments: You may add a new payment to a "Payee" by accessing the service and entering the appropriate information. Most other additions/deletions or changes can be made in writing or by using the service.

- You may pay any "Payee" within the United States (including US territories and APOs / AEOs).
- The Financial Institution is not responsible for payments that cannot be made due to incomplete, incorrect or outdated information.

The Bill Paying Process

Single Payments: A single payment will be processed on the business day (generally Monday through Friday, except certain holidays) that you designate as the payment's processing date, provided the payment is submitted prior to the daily cut-off time on that date. The daily cut-off time, which is controlled by the Financial Institution, is currently 3pm CST.

A single payment submitted after the cut-off time on the designated processing date will be processed on the next business day. If you designate a non-business date (generally weekends and certain holidays) as the payment's processing date, the payment will be processed on the first business day following the designated processing date.

Recurring Payments: When a recurring payment is processed, it is automatically rescheduled by the system. Based upon your selected frequency settings for the payment, a processing date is calculated for the next occurrence of the payment. If the calculated processing date is a non-business date (generally weekends and certain holidays), it is adjusted based upon the following rules:

- If the recurring payment's "Pay Before" option is selected, the processing date for the new occurrence of the payment is adjusted to the first business date prior to the calculated processing date.
- If the recurring payment's "Pay After" option is selected, the processing date for the new occurrence of the payment is adjusted to the first business date after the calculated processing date. Note: If your frequency settings for the recurring payment specify the 29th, 30th, or 31st as a particular day of the month for processing and that day does not exist in the month of the calculated processing date, then the last calendar day of that month is used as the calculated processing date.

SINGLE AND RECURRING PAYMENTS:

The system will calculate the Estimated Arrival Date of your payment. This is only an estimate, so please allow ample time for your payments to reach your "Payees". To assure timely payment, we recommend that you schedule payments at least four (4) bank business days before the payment's actual due date (not the late date and/or a date in the grace period). If you do not, you will be fully responsible for all late fees, interest charges or other action taken by the Biller/Payee.

PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT REMITTANCE

By providing the Service with names and account information of Biller/Payees to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Biller/Payee directives. When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize the Service to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service or Biller/Payee, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service. The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service and the Financial Institution shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. If, through no fault of the Service, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account.
2. The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service, the Financial Institution or any other party about the malfunction before you execute the transaction.
3. You have not provided the Service with the correct Payment Account information, your correct personal information, or the correct name, address, phone number or account information for the Biller/Payee or you have provided incomplete Payment Instructions.
4. Circumstances beyond control of the Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction, and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.
5. If the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim restricting such transfer; and/or
6. If the Payee mishandles or delays processing a payment sent by the Service.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Biller/Payee which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account and for directing to the proper Biller/Payee any previously misdirected transactions and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges that you reasonably incur as a result if your account was in good standing with the Biller/Payee prior to this incident. However, it is your responsibility to monitor the payments that are made through the Service and to inform the Service as soon as you discover an error. The Service and the Financial Institution will not be responsible for any late payment related charges arising after you have had a reasonable amount of time to discover and report the error to the Service. In addition, the Service and the Financial Institution are under no obligation to inform you if the Service does not complete a payment or transfer because there are non-sufficient funds in your account to process the transaction. In this case, you are responsible for making alternate arrangements or rescheduling the payment.

NO DUTY TO MONITOR PAYMENTS

The Financial Institution and the Service do not have any duty to monitor the payments that are made through the Service. You assume the entire risk of using the Service properly to ensure that funds are transferred and bills are paid properly and in a timely manner. The Financial Institution and the Service will not be responsible for any charges imposed or any other action taken by a payee/merchant resulting from a bill payment that you have not scheduled properly, including any applicable finance charges and late fees.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF COMMERCIALY REASONABLE SECURITY PROCEDURES; LIMITATION ON BANK LIABILITY

You agree that the security described in this Agreement and the Agreement for Business Online set forth security procedures for electronic fund transfers that are commercially reasonable. For payment requests from business accounts, which are subject to Article 4A of the Texas Business & Commerce Code ("Tex. Bus. & Com. Code 4A"), we are liable only for damages required to be paid under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code 4A. In no event will we be liable for any special, indirect or consequential loss, damage, costs or expense of any nature, including, without limitation, lost profits, even if we have been informed of the possibility of such damages, except as may be required by law

STOP PAYMENT REQUESTS

The Service's ability to process a stop-payment request will depend on the payment method. The Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop-payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact Customer Service. Although the Service will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Service and the Financial Institution will have no liability for failing to do so. The Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop-payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable disclosures and fee schedules that have been provided to you in connection with your Account.

EXCEPTION PAYMENTS

Although payments to the following types of Payees may be scheduled through the Service, such payments are discouraged and are scheduled by you entirely at your own risk; IN NO EVENT WILL WE BE LIABLE FOR ANY CLAIMS OR DAMAGES THAT MAY RESULT IF YOU SCHEDULE PAYMENTS TO THE FOLLOWING PAYEES:

- Payees outside of the United States, including Canada;
- Payees to U.S. Territories;
- Tax payments;
- Government agencies, or
- Court-ordered payments (such as child support payments or traffic tickets).

In no event shall the Service or the Financial Institution be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of these types of payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related charges is void when these types of payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. The Service and the Financial Institution have no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from an exception payment, nor are we responsible for any late payment-related charges when these types of payments are scheduled and/or processed through the Service. All research and resolution for any misapplied, misposted or misdirected payments will be the sole responsibility of you and not of the Service or the Financial Institution.
